"Underappreciated outside of game fandom for years, the genre now has dedicated orchestras playing sold-out concert tours around the world. And Noone is a passionate advocate to explore and explain the unique elements of the form" The Guardian

Wednesday 19th October, Lucca, Italy: Lucca Comics & Games presents The Witcher 3: Wild Hunt - Music from the Continent, a symphony concert dedicated to CD PROJEKT RED's world-famous videogame franchise.

The conductor for the evening will be the award-winning conductor and composer Eímeare Noone. The LA/Dublin based conductor / composer is one of the leading figures in games scores and is responsible for some of the most enduring soundscapes on World of Warcraft, Zelda and other best-selling video games. Through her music on World of Warcraft, Eímeare's music has reached over a 100 million people and continually inspired players to invent and build new worlds for nearly 15 years. Her composition portfolio of 26 film and video-game titles have received multiple industry accolades including the "Hollywood Music in Media Award" for "Best Video Game Score". Eímeare is the first woman ever to conduct at the Academy Award Ceremony.

Tracks will be performed by musicians from the Fiesole's Orchestra Giovanile Italiana (the Italian Youth Orchestra), accompanied by the Polish folk metal band Percival Schuttenbach. It's a once-in-a-lifetime event, produced with Teatro del Giglio in Lucca, on the occasion of CD PROJEKT RED 20th anniversary.

Orchestra Giovanile Italiana was created by Piero Farulli within the School of Music in Fiesole (Tuscany). For 40 years, it has made a considerable impact on the music industry of the country with over a thousand musicians permanently employed in Italian and foreign symphony orchestras. Baptized by Riccardo Muti, the Orchestra has performed at some of the countries most prestigious music venues.
